Discuss and Respond:

What are some goals or achievements that you personally feel would be worth the cost of eight years of your life?

Why do you think it was the practice of rabbis to only select the best of the best for discipleship?

What do you think it means that Jesus did not go by the same standards in selecting His disciples?

Is there something you have accomplished that was really difficult and that you are proud to have done?

Jesus is inviting us to something great with Him. Why do you think people fail to understand that following Jesus is an amazing adventure?

Blessed Pier Giorgio was young and wealthy but chose to give his money and his time to helping others. What did he see that so many other young and wealthy celebrities seem to miss?

Blessed Pier Giorgio's slogan to "aim for the top" suggests that there is nothing greater than being in mission with Jesus. How can you be in mission with Jesus right now in your daily life?

What fears hold you back from giving everything to Jesus, like your time for prayer, the desires of your flesh, your future dreams, and your friendships?
